NOW SOLD!

Established in 1994 the business is centered upon the sale, installation, routine service and parts supply of outboard engines, which includes performance diagnostics and fix support.

The business successfully provides product and technical support for a number of professional sailing teams and high-profile private clients both locally and in some cases involves work overseas. This is an area where high quality customer care and service engagement is demanded and is where the business excels. Other clients include the UK Government, RNLI, Trade customers and the leisure marine sector in general.
