Plymouth Yacht Brokers is a full-service brokerage company based in Plymouth, Devon. Trading for over 25 years the business sells both sail and powered craft for customers located throughout the South West. To support the brokerage operations, maintenance and management services are also provided as required. This is a low running cost business ideal for someone looking to get into the boat sales profession, or an existing broker or expanding brokerage seeking a presence in the region. All operational assets and handover support are included in the sale, which is due to the owner relocating away from the region.
